

As a radio amateur (W0RSP) who uses only powers under 5 watts, battery powered, ready for emergency situations, I vote urge the FCC to reject the proposition of using BPL. It will be a source of insurmountable r.f. interference in maintaining emergency communications as well as during normal operating periods.